

Around DCDC

Ladybug Love

Our Bloom Road preschoolers recently learned about ladybugs and had the opportunity to watch them up close and in person and talked about how they are helpful to gardens.

Later, they released them out by our community garden. To check out the video, click here!

Kindergarten Transition Night

DCDC's Preschool Teachers attended Danville Area School District's Kindergarten Transition Night to provide a familiar face to our preschoolers who are getting ready to go to Kindergarten in the Fall.

DCDC Receives Youth In Philanthropy Grant

DCDC's Summer School Age for Kids program was a recipient of Danville Area School District's Youth In Philanthropy grant to help support learning experiences through field trips for our Summer School-Ager's. Youth in Philanthropy is sponsored by the Central Susquehanna Community Foundation, with the goal of exposing high school students to community giving with a focus on programs that help young people. Pictured are students: Lauren Law, Maren Bowman, Kyla Drumheller, and holding check, teacher Beth Nevius.

Week of the Young Child

This year's Week of the Young Child was celebrated by DCDC with a week full of events! From Musical Monday to Family Friday, and a Proclamation & a story by the Danville Mayor and the County Commissioners, a great time was had by all! !

K. J. Reimensnyder, above, sings and plays the guitar at the Danville Child Development Center on Wall Street on Monday morning. She was taking part in the first day of the Week of the Young Child. Danville Child Development Center pre-schooler Isaac Bankert, at left, sings a song with Reimensnyder during the program.

Summer School Age Registration IS OPEN!

At DCDC's Summer School Age program, learning happens all summer long as we engage your child in their flights of imagination... mind, body and spirit! Field trips, guest speakers, weekly swim outings and hands on activities facilitated by degreed teachers and experienced staff will make the most of your child's summer!

Registration information is available at DanvilleCDC.org.

P.S. everything's included in your tuition for the summer! Come for a week, or the whole summer long!

DCDC on Bloom Road is a Keystone STARS STAR 3 program.

FAMILY REMINDERS!

Family Carnival

DCDC at both locations will be closing at 4:45 on Wednesday, June 7 for our Preschool Recognition and Family Carnival. Both events will be held at Bloom Rd. Please see the invitation for more details!

Family Surveys

Families Surveys have been emailed to families. While we welcome feedback at any time, our survey is important for us to improve our program offerings and for quality improvement plans. Thanks in advance for your feedback!

It's a Wrap!

Dueling Pianos

Over 200 guests had a super fun time at the Pine Barn with Dueling Pianos International playing all their favs and raising just over $13,000 for DCDC's Building Our Future Campaign.

DCDC'S DINNER & A SHOW!

We'd like to thank our That's Entertainment Sponsors, Carriage Manor Builders, M&T Bank and Storm Uniforms for their support of the event!
